CAUTION TO DEBTORS.

FROM information received, since the death of my late partner, C. G. Graham, I believe there are numerous outstanding debts due to the late firm, for which notes were given payable to "C. G. I therefore warn all persons thus indebted not to make payment to any person other than myself or my authorized agent. If they do, they will act in their wrong, and may be compelled to pay again to the surviving partner, who alone is authorized to collect said debts.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

A STRONG ARMY.

The Charleston Courier publishes an ode on the occasion of the meeting of the National Congress, which, in speaking of the non-slaveholding States, thus enumerates the forces at the command of the South:

"What if, both mad and blinded in their rage,
Our foes should fling us down the mortal gage,
And with a hostile step profane our soil,
To meet them, brothers, but go forth
To meet them, marshaled by the Lord of Hosts,
And overhauled by the mighty ghosts
Of Mulltrie and of Bataw—what shall foil
Auxiliary such as these? Not these alone,
But every stock and stone,
Shall help, in every very soft,
And all the generous wealth it gives to toil,
And all for which we love our noble land,
Tree, fruit and flower, and every influence,
Gentle, or grave, or grand,
The winds in our defense
Shall seem to blow; to us the hills shall lend
Their firmness and their calm;
And in our stiffened sinews we shall blend
The strength of pine and palm!"

Artemus Ward Among the Shakers—His "Yaying": Experience with Two Pretty Shakeresses.

Artemus Ward, in last week's Vanity Fair, gives some of his experience among the Shakers. I sat down to the table, and the female in the meat-bag poured out sum tea. She sed notin, and for five minits the only live thing in that room was a old wooden clock which tickt in a subdud and basful manner in the corner. This deathly stillness made me uneasy, and I determined to talk to the female or bust. So sez I, "marriage is agin your rules, I bleeve, marm?" "Yay." "The sexes live strictly apart, I spect?" "Yay." "It's kinder singler," sez I, puttin' on my most sweetest look, and speakin in a winnie voice; "that so fair a maid as thow never got hitched to sum likly feller." [N. B.—she was upward of forty, and homely as a stump fence, but I thawt I'd tickle her.] "I don't like men," she sed, very short. "Wall, I dunno," sez I, "they ar rayther important part of the populashun. I don't scaurely see how we could git along without em."

"Us poor wimmin folks would git along a grent deal better if we had no men!"

"You'll excuse me marm, but I don't think that air would work. It wouldn't be reglar."

"I'm fraid of men!" she said.

"That's onecessary, marm. You ain't in no danger. Don't fret yourself on that pint."

"Here we're shut out of the sinful world. Here all is peace. Here we are brothers and sisters. We don't marry, and consequently we have no domestic difficulties. Husbands don't abuse their wives—wives don't worrit their husbands. There's no children here to worrit us. Nothing to worrit us here. No wicked matrimony here. Would thow like to be a Shaker?"

"No," sez I, "it ain't my stile."

I had now listed in as big a load of provishans as I could carry comfortable, and leasin' back in my cheer, commencin pickin my teeth with a fork. The female went out, leavin' me all alone with the clock.

hadn't sot thar long before the elder poked his head in at the door. "You're a man of sin!" he sed, and gazed and went away.

Directly thar cum in two young Shakeresses, as pretty and slick lookin' gals as I ever met. It is troo they was dressed in meal bags like the old one I'd met previly, and their shiny silky hair was hid from sight by long white caps, such as I sposed female goats wear; but their eyes sparkled like diamonds, their cheeks was like roses, and they was charmin enuff to make a man thow stuns at his grandmother, if they axed him to do. They commint clearin away the dishes, castin shy glances at me all the time. I got excited. I forgot Betsy Jane in my rapier, and sez I, "my pretty dears, how are you?"

"We are well," they solemnly sed.

"What's the old man?" sez I, in a soft voice.

"O! whom dost thow speak—brother Uriah?"

"I mean the gay and festive cuss who calls me man of sin. Shouldn't wonder if his name was Uriah."

"He has retired."

"Wall, my pretty dears, sez I, "lets have sum fun. Let's play Puss in the corner. What say?"

"Are you a Shaker, sir?" they axed.

"Wall, my pretty dears, I haven't arrayed my proud form in a long weasit vit, but if they was all like you perhaps I'd jine em. As it is, I'm a Shaker protemporary."

They was full of fun. I sed that at fast, only they was a little skeery. I thawt 'em Puss in the corner and sick like pake, and we had a nice time, keepin quiet, of course, so the old man shouldn't hear. When we broke up, sez I, "my pretty dears, ear I go you have no objections, hav you, to a innocent kiss at partin'?"

"Yay," they sed, and I yay'd.

AWKWARD—"My name is Norbal."—The influenza is raging as badly in New York as in any other region. Every body coughs and sneezing. The Democrat man witnessed a scene at the theatre.

"Nice young man (entering a nice young lady's box)—"Good evening, Miss Jenkins. Ah chouch, ah chouch!"

Young lady—"Ah, Bister Brown, I ab buch pleased to see you. How do you like Bister Beador's dew opowa to-night?"

Ah chouch, ah chouch!

"Nice young man (blowing his nose)—"It is divide, the basic is splendid, and the sedery grad: Biss Richizs sicks like lightnigale. But I have such a choick cold that I coudt edjoy it anyting like I wad to—ah chouch, ah chouch!"

Young lady—"Ah chouch—yes—ah chouch!"

I have had the sabb dew for all the bodth, ad by dose—ah chouch."

Nice young man—"Sois bide—ah chouch."

Here both applied their handkerchiefs to their noses, and blew great guns till they were very red in the face. We left to put our feet in hot water, talow our nose, and go to bed in a basin of hot gruel, with something in it.

SENATOR JOHNSON ON GOVERNMENT ROBBERS.—In a recent speech, Hon. Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, said:

Cobb remained in the Cabinet until the treasury was bankrupt and the national credit disgraced at home and abroad, and then he conscientiously seceded; Thompson stayed in until the poor Indians were robbed of a large portion of their patrimony, and then he conscientiously seceded; and Floyd, more honest than the rest, waited until he and his friends had taken some eight millions of public and private money, and then he pious soul, conscientiously seceded too.

[From the Waco (Texas) Gazette.]

Effects of Secession—Letter from Judge Lyon, of South Carolina, to a Friend in Texas.

The following letter from Judge Robert Lyon, of Abbeville Court House, South Carolina, speaks for itself:

ABBEVILLE, C. H., Thursday, Jan. 24.

DEAR SIR: I desire you to procure for me and send by mail, a Texas almanac. Six months since, I felt perfectly willing to remain in South Carolina; but I can remain here no longer. At the election of Lincoln we all felt that we must resist. In this move I placed myself amongst the foremost, and yet determined to resist him to the bitter end. I had my misgivings at first of the idea of separate secession, but thought it would be but for a short time, and at small cost.

In this matter, together with thousands of other Carolinians, we have been mistaken. Everything is in the wildest commotion.

My bottom land on Long Cane, for which I could have gotten $30 per acre, I now cannot sell at any price. All our young men nearly are in and around Charleston. Thither we have sent many hundreds of our negroes (I have sent twenty) to work. Crops were very short last year, and it does now seem that nothing will be planted this coming season. All are excited to the highest pitch, and not a thought of the future is taken.

Messengers are running here and there, with and without the Governor's orders. We have no money.

A forced tax is levied upon every man. I have furnished the last surplus dollar I have. I had about $27,000 in bank. At first I gave a check for ten thousand, then five thousand, then the remainder. It is now estimated that we are spending over these times. It was our full understanding when we went out of the Union, that we would have a new Government of all the southern States. Our object was to bring about a collision with the authorities at Washington, which all thought would make all join us. Although we have sought such collision in every way, we have not yet got a fight, and the prospect is very distant.

I want the almanac, in order to see from it what part of Texas may suit me. I want to raise cotton principally, but must raise corn to do me. I will need about a thousand acres of good land. My force is increasing; many young negroes are coming on. I can send to the field about sixty-five, big and little. I shall make no crop here this year. I shall start my negroes from here to John Brownlee, at Shreveport, about the 1st of April. I will leave my lands here to grow up in pines. When we all get to Shreveport, John Brownlee says he will go with me all over Texas. I cannot live here, and must get away. Many are leaving now; at least 10,000 negroes have left already, and before long one-third of the wealth of South Carolina will be in the West. I desire you to look around and help me get a home.

As ever, yours,
ROBERT LYON.

"The Constitution as it is" is against all Personal Liberty Bills in the States that conflict with the authority of the Federal Government.

Against all underground railroads that run off servants from their masters South, to Canada or elsewhere North.

Against all mobbing of U. S. Marshals that in the line of duty execute Federal laws.

Against all incendiary publications North that influence a servile war in the South. Against all "Tribunes," "Independents," and everything like them.

Against all geographical party organizations that array one portion of the country against another.

Against the denial of all right of transit North for servants as well as masters.

Against turning out of church the George Washington, Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson slaveholding followers in the South.

Against converting into "a crime and a sin" the example of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of Paul the Apostle, who sent back Chilonen.

Against going to war to acquire common Territory, and then stealing or monopolizing the whole of it, and persistently excluding from it the share of our danger in the war, or the common contributors in purse in time of peace.

The Constitution, as it is, is excellent—magnificent. The only difficulty we have is with the higher law people who construe it as it is not, and refuse to abide by the adjudications of the Supreme Court, when the courts come in conflict with their underground railroad, civil war-inspiring, territory-monopolizing "conscience."

If the Republicans will abide by the courts, and cultivate, not brutalize, their "consciences," we need no constitutional amendments. Since 1783 we have joggled on with the Constitution well, until, in these latter days, they set up their million or two of "consciences" in opposition to the "courts."

The main question now is, the new-fangled and recently discovered Puritan "conscience," or the Supreme Court of the United States. We prefer the court.—N. Y. Express.

The Tusculooa (Ala.) Monitor thus sums up its objections to the proceedings of the Alabama State Convention, and of the "Southern Congress" at Montgomery:

"We hold, first, that the ordinance of secession should have been submitted to the people for their ratification or rejection; secondly, that the ordinances passed by the Convention should have awaited the issue of this decision; thirdly, that the people had the right, and it should have been given them, to have chosen the delegates to a Congress which was to have framed for them a government for war or for peace. And we now demand that the Government formed—its President, Vice President and officers—should be submitted to the people for their approval or disapproval. If it is not, we shall, come weal or woe, attempt to fire the people's heart, to educate the people's mind to know their rights and to dare maintain them. We are no submissionists, but right is right and we will not betray our trust. We assert that the people have a right to be heard, and, being heard, to be obeyed. And we intend to keep them posted in what we consider to be an infringement of their rights and of their privileges, let the worst come to the worst. If it is treason against the new Confederacy, make the most of it. We know we are right, and, untrammelled and unawed, we will defend the right."

WASHINGTON, March 14.

The Supreme Court gave to-day a decision in favor of Mrs. Gaines, and made orders which will place her in possession of all the property of Daniel Clarke, of whom she is the only legitimate child.

The Court decided adversely in the Kentucky and Ohio mandamus cases. While announcing that the Governor of a State should surrender a fugitive upon proper proof, it held that Congress cannot impose a duty upon a State officer, &c.

Hon. L. W. Andrews.

We learn from a gentleman of Carter that Mr. Andrews, the Senator from the Fleming District, addressed his fellow-citizens on his return home from the extra session of the Legislature in a speech of over two hours. This was regarded as one of the greatest and most powerful efforts of his life.

It was on the issues now agitating the public mind. Mr. Andrews took the strongest grounds in favor of the Union, and asserted his determination to cling to it as long as there was a vestige of it left.

The assemblage was large and enthusiastic. Old Fleming is and ever will be loyal to the Union. They will never go wrong while they follow their distinguished and patriotic statesman, the Hon. L. W. Andrews.—Sandy Valley Advocate.

A CAPITAL REBUKE.—When Captain Ingraham returned, a few days since, from the command of the Richmond steam sloop, in the Mediterranean, a certain Senator from Louisiana, though born and raised in New York city and a late member of the Naval Committee of the Senate, said to him substantially as follows:

"Sir, why did you not retain your command and bring your ship into New Orleans, or some other southern port, when the State seceded?" To which Capt. Ingraham replied: "Sir, you are mistaken in your man, and in southern naval officers, if you suppose they, or I, could forget our oaths of office, and become traitors or be guilty of a contemptible theft!" When South Carolina calls for her sons to leave the General Government and return to the bosom of the parent State, she expects them to do so with honor untarnished and reputations without the slightest spot on their escutcheons; thieves and traitors she will never acknowledge."

A VOICE FOR THE UNION IN NEW ORLEANS.—The New Orleans True Delta still stands firmly by the Union, and daily thunders forth its denunciations of the secessionists. It concludes an article denouncing Mr. Buchanan as a traitor to his country, and Senator Sidel as having clung to him "while there was an office to dispense, a job to be consumed, or a country to betray," with the following prediction:

"Our opinion is, that sooner or later, the abortions of Washington and Montgomery will be brushed away, and the true Democracy of the nation, enlightened by the past, will resume the administration of their country, purify its councils, do justice to all sections, and with a united front again place this nation in that commanding position before the world from which villainous conspirators for the moment have degraded it."

Rumors of negro insurrections are rife in the neighborhood of Norfolk and Petersburg, Virginia.

The Premium Jack, SHAKESPEARE,

WILL MAKE THE PRESENT SEASON at the stables of Mrs. E. Nash, 4 miles south of Versailles, on the turnpike to McCann's Ferry, 6 miles from said ferry, at THIRTY DOLLARS to insure a colt. Persons wishing a conditional insurance for Jack or Jennet colt, can, by the addition of $10 in the former or the deduction of $5 in the latter, be accommodated. Persons not stipulating the terms at the time of sending their jennets, will be charged the insurance price. Jennets losing their colts before foaling time, can be bred next season free of charge. Jennets will be pastured gratis, or grain fed on reasonable terms.

He has proven himself a sure foot getter, and his colts are not surpassed by any Jack's colts in the country. He has formerly stood at $40, but owing to the hard times is reduced thus low.

Description and Pedigree. SHAKESPEARE will be 5 years old, next June, is jet black, with neatly mane, is full 16 hands high, with superior bone, style, and action. He has taken four or five first premiums at the different fairs.

He was sired by the celebrated Compromise, and out of a Mammoth Jennet; his granddam by Jack Downing, or, in other words, by Mountain Leader, out of an imported jennet.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY! For the cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS AND COLDS.

THE MAKORA ARABICA, DISCOVERED BY A Missionary while traveling in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Consumption should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Bronchitis should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Sore Throat, Coughs, and Colds, should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Asthma, Scrofula, and Impurities of the Blood, should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

It cures Bronchitis. It cures Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds. It cures Asthma, Scrofula, and impurities of the blood.

This unequalled remedy is now for the first time introduced to the public.

It was providentially discovered by a missionary while traveling in Arabia. He was cured of Consumption by its use, after his case was pronounced hopeless by learned physicians in Europe.

He has forwarded to us, in writing, a full account of his own extraordinary cure, and of a number of other cures which have come under his observation, and also a full account of the medicine.

At his request, and impelled by a desire to extend a knowledge of this remedy to the public, we have had his communication printed in pamphlet form for free distribution. Its interest is enhanced by an account which he gives of some of the scenes of the Syrian massacres, which he obtained from those who were sufferers in that awful tragedy. This pamphlet may be obtained at our office, or it will be sent free by mail to all who apply for it.

We import the MAKORA ARABICA direct from Smyrna, through the house of Cleon & Gylippus, and we have always on hand a full supply put up in bottles, ready for use, with full directions.

Price one dollar per bottle. Sent by mail, on receipt of price and 24 cents for postage.

For sale wholesale and retail by LEEDS, GILMORE & CO., Importers, 61 Liberty street, New York.

THE KENTUCKY FARMER.
ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!
NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!!

THE SECOND VOLUME of the "Kentucky Farmer" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agriculturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every copy of its patron. Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us one or more additional copies for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased for the Second Volume, but is nothing like so large as it should be. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "Kentucky Farmer" will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable invariably in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail at our risk. Letters addressed to us need not be registered. Address

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alternative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alternative power as to afford an effective antidote for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DEBILITY, DYSPERSEA AND INDIGESTION, ERYSIPELAS, ROSA OF ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alternative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you this. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this purbation of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large lotteries, promising to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW,
An experienced Nurse and Female Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her

SOOTHING SYRUP,
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation, and is sure to regulate the Bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and Benefit and Health to your Infants.

We have just put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth, of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure, when timely used.

Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magical effects and medicinal virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know" after ten years' experience, and give our opinion for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER-FAILING SUCCESS in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY in the world in ALL cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHGA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your precious babe suffer for the want of a simple remedy, which will give relief to the mother and be SURE, YES, ABSOLUTELY SURE, to follow this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the full name of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.
